Case No. 3:14-cv-00247-RCJ-VPC

STIPULATION AND ORDER
SETTING BRIEFING SCHEDULE

20 Come now Plaintiffs and the Secretary of the Interior ("Secretary"), through their 21 respective undersigned counsel, and agree and stipulate as follows:
22

23 1. This is an action brought by plaintiffs to challenge the determinations by the Secretary 24 regarding each plaintiffs' non-eligibility for inclusion on the Western Shoshone Judgment roll.

1           2. In accordance with the stipulated Order (#31) the Secretary filed the Administrative 2 Record (#32) on March 12, 2018, pertaining to the non-eligibility determinations at issue in this 3 case.

4           3. If any of the plaintiffs intend to further challenge the Secretary's non-eligibility 5 determinations, such plaintiff shall file his/her/their motion for summary judgment and 6 corresponding memorandum of law on or before May 14, 2018. If any of the plaintiffs do not file 7 a motion for summary judgment by said date, the claims of such non-filing plaintiffs shall be 8 dismissed with prejudice.

9           4. If a motion for summary judgment is filed by one or more of the plaintiffs in 10 accordance with paragraph three, above, the Secretary shall file his cross-motion for summary
11 judgment and corresponding memorandum of law on or before May 30, 2018. The Secretary's 12 cross-motion shall also function as the Secretary's opposition to plaintiffs' motion for summary 13 judgment. Plaintiffs shall thereafter file on or before June 22, 2018, their opposition to the 14 Secretary's cross-motion for summary judgment, which opposition shall also function as a reply
15 memorandum in support of plaintiffs' motion for summary judgment. The Secretary may 16 thereafter file on or before July 9, 2018, a final reply memorandum in support of the Secretary's 17 cross-motion for summary judgment.

18           5. Each party shall support their respective motions with appropriate references to pages 19 of the Administrative Record, with copies of the referenced pages provided in an appendix to the
